

Great News!
It's NOT Too Late... You Can Still Book Me
In Time To Clean Your Carpet Before
Your Holiday Guests Arrive.
But If You Don't Call Now You May Have To Wait Until After The Holidays...

Hello friends and clients. Remember last month I sent you a letter warning you about my crazy schedule in November and December? Many of you took me up on the offer and booked your cleaning in plenty of time to have clean, sparkling, fluffy carpets for the holiday weekend. Even now my phone is ringing off the hook with clients scheduling before their December guests and parties arrive. But I know there are still some of you out there who will want a spot in the schedule so desperately and will not be able to nab it because you didn't call me in time.

You Think I'm Lying Don't You?

Every year I get that one desperate phone call. It usually comes about mid-December when I'm already booked until the 24th. (Yes there are some of you who like to clean on the 24th!) And it is usually one of my clients that I like very much that calls me in this 11th hour. And no matter how much this well-liked client of mine may beg and plead I cannot create an extra few hours in the day. So they must be relegated to the dreaded and uncertain "cancellation list". So please, please don't let that be you.

Not this year. Not ever. Just think about how long it took you to find a great carpet cleaner, one you can trust to actually know their chemistry and fiber identification. One who treats your home and belongings with respect. One who is certified and guarantees their work with a bold 100% money-back guarantee. Think about how long it took for you to find me. When I get those desperate phone calls do you know what I tell my clients?

You Can Never Schedule Too Early But You Can Schedule Too Late.

I want to be able to clean for you this year before your guests and parties and festivities commence. I want to be able to remove all those spots that have been bugging you. I want a chance to fluff up and brighten those matted down hallways and stairs for you. So please don't wait one more day. Unless you are one of those who chooses to clean after the holidays – please contact me today, by phone 703-925-0022 or by e-mail absolutecarpetcare@yahoo.com.
